SCRIPTURE READINGS

1 Cor. 4:9-16

BRETHREN: For I think that God has displayed us, the apostles, last, as men condemned to death; for we have been made a spectacle to the world, both to angels and to men. We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are strong! You are distinguished, but we are dishonored! To the present hour we both hunger and thirst, and we are poorly clothed, and beaten, and homeless. And we labor, working with our own hands. Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure; being defamed, we entreat. We have been made as the filth of the world, the offscouring of all things until now. I do not write these things to shame you, but as my beloved children I warn you. For though you might have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet you do not have many fathers; for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. Therefore I urge you, imitate me.

Matt. 17:14-23

AT THAT TIME, a man came to Jesus, kneeling down before Him and

10th Sunday after Pentecost Afterfeast of the Dormition

said, Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is an epileptic and suffers severely; for he often falls into the fire and often into the water. So I brought him to Your disciples, but they could not cure him. Then Jesus answered and said, "O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him here to Me." And Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him; and the child was cured from that very hour. Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?" So Jesus said to them, "Because of your unbelief; for assuredly, I say to you, if you have faith as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you. However, this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting. Now while they were staying in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of men, and they will kill Him, and the third day He will be raised up. And they were exceedingly sorrowful.

◆ Financial Stewardship: As we approach the two-thirds of a year marker and the end of the summer slump it is a good time to look at our pledge and financial support for our parish. Every week the contributions and the goal are posted. As of this week we are behind by $ 29,564 which means we are at 70% of our goal with only 4 months remaining in the fiscal year.

◆ Parish Ministries: Those who have looked at our web site have noticed that there is a tab named "Parish Ministries." They also may have noticed that it is blank. This page and the ministries that will be written there need to be filled by YOU, the faithful of Holy Trinity. Parish Ministries are not just those who are elected to an office but anyone who gives of their time, talent and treasure to a specific task or function in our parish. Don't be shy, step up and volunteer. Let Fr. David know what you do or have done in the past.
