SCRIPTURE READINGS

1 Cor. 9:2-12

BRETHREN: If I am not an apostle to others, yet doubtless I am to you. For you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord. My defense to those who examine me is this: Do we have no right to eat and drink? Do we have no right to take along a believing wife, as do also the other apostles, the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas? Or is it only Barnabas and I who have no right to refrain from working? Who ever goes to war at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit? Or who tends a flock and does not drink of the milk of the flock? Do I say these things as a mere man? Or does not the law say the same also? For it is written in the law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain." Is it oxen God is concerned about? Or does He say it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written, that he who plows should plow in hope, and he who threshes in hope should be partaker of his hope. If we have sown spiritual things for you, is it a great thing if we reap your material things? If others are partakers of this right over you, are we not even more? Nevertheless we have not used this right, but endure all things lest we hinder the gospel of Christ.

& Galatians 5:22-6:2

Matt. 18:23-35

THE LORD SPOKE THIS PARABLE:

The kingdom of heaven is like a certain king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants. And when he had begun to settle accounts, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents. But as he was not able to pay, his master commanded that he be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and that payment be made. The servant therefore fell down before him, saying, 'Master, have patience with me, and I will pay you all.' Then the master of that servant was moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt. But that servant went out and found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii; and he laid hands on him and took him by the throat, saying, 'Pay me what you owe!' So his fellow servant fell down at his feet and begged him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will pay you all.' And he would not, but went and threw him into prison till he should pay the debt. So when his fellow servants saw what had been done, they were very grieved, and came and told their master all that had been done. Then his master, after he had called him, said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt because you begged me. Should you not also have had compassion on your fellow servant, just as I had pity on you?' And his master was angry, and delivered him to the torturers until he should pay all that was due to him. So My heavenly Father also will do to you if each of you, from his heart, does not forgive his brother his trespasses. & Luke 6:17-23

ANNOUNCEMENTS

♦The August monthly charity collection is for the International Orthodox Christian Charities. The IOCC is the official international humanitarian organization of the Episcopal Assembly (formerly SCOBA). With the earthquake in Haiti and recent tsunami in Japan, tornados in Missouri, Alabama, Massachusetts or flooding in North Dakota the IOCC is in need of a boost to its treasury!

We will take our monthly charity collection TODAY, the last Sunday of the month. Please use the envelope provided in your monthly mailing and be generous!!

♦Parish Council: After our long summer break it is time for the council to get back into action. Our meeting is tomorrow Monday, August 29th at 7:00 p.m.

♦Cleaners & Greeters: The list for cleaners for September through November is posted on the bulletin board. PLEASE sign up today, especially for the last two weeks in August, to help keep the downstairs clean during our renovation! Also, the Greeters list
