SCRIPTURE READINGS

Colossians 3:12-16

BRETHREN: as the elect of God, holy and beloved, put on tender mercies, kindness, humility, meekness, longsuffering; bearing with one another, and forgiving one another, if anyone has a complaint against another; even as Christ forgave you, so you also must do. But above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection. And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom, teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

Luke 18:35-43

AT THAT TIME: as Jesus was coming near Jericho, that a certain blind man sat by the road begging. And hearing a multitude passing by, he asked what it meant. So they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by. And he cried out, saying, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" Then those who went before warned him that he should be quiet; but he cried out all the more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" So Jesus stood still and commanded him to be brought to Him. And when he had come near, He asked him, saying, "What do you want Me to do for you?" He said, "Lord, that I may receive my sight." Then Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight; your faith has made you well." And immediately he received his sight, and followed Him, glorifying God. And all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

..... and all those shut-in and in Nursing Homes!

is for the New Britain Food and Resource Center. The food pantry is the brainchild of the New Britain Food Security Collaborative, a consortium of organizations in the city that is addressing hunger in the community. The collection will be taken NEXT week, the last Sunday of the month. Please use the envelope provided in your monthly mailing and be generous!!

♦ Study Group: Join us in a new adult discussion group. Our focus will be on one's relationship with God and in what ways we experience this in our modern world. We would like to use the book "The Shack" by Wm. Paul Young as a focal point, parallel with teachings of the Orthodox Church. The initial intent will be to run bi-weekly meetings, after coffee hour on Sunday, from approximately 11:15 to 12:00 starting on Sunday, February 6, 2011. Please see Ann Myszka, Dan Belonick or Chris Dresko if you are interested.

♦ Men's Club Lotto -
